13. Juniors Division may play on the Senior team, but not vice versa.
14. BENCH DECORUM: The Catholic School Athletic Association has adopted a modified version of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association coaching box. The “coaching box shall be defined as an area outside the playing court on the side of the court which the scorer/timers table and team benches are located. This box shall be bound in a area marked from the first seat on the bench from the scorer/timers table, down the bench area to fifteen (15) feet in length. The width shall be three (3) feet, but in cases of limited space, may be reduced to the distance from the sideline to the team bench. Each box shall be clearly marked with two-inch wide lines.
- It is important to note that this change applies only to the Head Coach. The penalty for leaving the coaches box for any unauthorized reason will be penalized by a two shot technical foul.
- All team members and assistant coaches are still bound by the old rule of remaining seated on the bench. Any infraction by a team member or assistant coach will be penalized with a technical foul against the offending party and the head coach. (PENALTY 2 three throws and possession)
- When the coaching Box is being utilized, then the first technical foul charged to the head coach results in the loss of the coaching box. And the coach shall comply with Rule 10 Sec. 5 Articles 1 and 2, page 63 & 64 for the remainder of the game.
